Welcome to Your Spiritual Receipt Journal

Each week of Good-Will Hunting is a divine encounter—where purpose meets practicality and the Spirit speaks through the simple. This journal is designed like a receipt, a symbolic reminder that every gathering, every scripture, every revelation is a transaction of grace.

 Each “receipt” records what you’ve received:

- The Word deposited in you
- The reflections stirred in your heart
- The treasures (both spiritual and thrifted) found along the way

As you fill out each page, consider it your takeaway from God’s storehouse—a record of what He gave, what He revealed, and what He’s calling you to carry forward.

 Grace is already paid in full.
Now let’s walk out the will of God—one receipt at a time.
